

Bert Miller Nature Club
2022/2023 Programs, Sept. – May

- September 12 Herb Sawatzky, 50 By 30 Niagara
50 By 2030 Niagara: A Call to Climate Action
Learn about the role this group is playing in promoting action on climate change and what individuals can do to help.
- October 11 Bob Highcock and Jean Hampson
(Tuesday) The Wild West of Cuba
Experience the wonderful natural world of this fascinating island.
- November 14 Michelle Martin, Land Care Niagara
Ontario Bats: Species at Risk
Find out fun facts about these creatures and the work this organization is doing to help protect them.
- December 12 Anne Yagi, Ecologist, 8 Trees, Inc. (Virtual only via Zoom)
Why Stormwater Ponds are Not Vernal Pools: An Ecologist's Perspective
A well-respected Niagara Ecologist explains the difference and shows what can be done to create vibrant wetlands.
- January 9 Jajeane Rose Burney (Virtual only via Zoom)
Ramsar Designation for the Niagara River
- February 13 AGM (Virtual only via Zoom) followed by Michael Runtz -
The Amorous Lives of Animals
Note - only members in good standing (have an up to date membership for the program year of Sept. 2022- August 2023) can vote at the AGM.
- March 13 Jessica Linton (Virtual only via Zoom)
Preservation & Protection of Ontario's Butterflies
- April 10 Win Laar (In Person)
The Beauty of The Bruce
- May 8 Brie Smalldon (In Person)
Beaver Creek at ICANTER Restoration Project

NOTE: All programs are in-person at the Stevensville Conservation Area (2555 Ott Rd), except where noted as "Virtual only". All meetings start at 7:00 p.m.